Welcome to Dhaka, Bangladesh

CanCham Bangladesh is delighted to host the first 'Canada Asia Business Summit 2018' in Dhaka, Bangladesh during 4-5 May 2018. The event is supported by the High Commission of Canada in Bangladesh. The Summit will present opportunities for all CanChams of Asia, Canadian Business Companies operating in Asia and those who will come from Canada for a rich intermix of discussion and interaction on business in Asia Pacific Region and its economies.

*Pink Palace of Dhaka

Of course, above all, you will also get acquainted yourself with Dhaka's rich culture, historical heritage and gastronomic experiences!

Background of the Summit

CanCham Bangladesh, established in 2005, has stepped into the 12th year recently. Since its inception, CanCham Bangladesh has attached great importance for enhancement of trade and investment between Canada and Bangladesh. During the last 12 years, it has developed a strong networking with Asia-Pacific CanChams. Besides, it has also networking with Chambers of Commerce and Associations located in Canada.

In order to celebrate the 12th year of CanCham Bangladesh, it will invite representatives from CanChams of Asia Pacific

Region and Canada, CanCham Members, Canadian Companies operating in Asia, Canadian Companies who have interest in Asia, Canadian Educational Institutions and Canadian Industry players with a desire to enter Asia. It is expected to create a win — win situation for all.

What's it About

The Summit will open a door to share experiences of Asia and the Pacific Region CanChams to promote businesses with Canada. More trade indicate mobility of investors between Canada and Asia Pacific Region. The Summit will further reduce the information gap between countries of Asia and Canada as the follow up of the Summit will be signing of MoUs to exchange information, thus making the Business Summit a regular annual event. The ultimate outcome of the Summit will unfold the potential opportunities for trade and investment expansion between Canada and Asia.

Speakers and Presenters

Speakers from Asia and Canada, at the summit, may be industry leaders and decision makers who can inspire the audience through their experience, know-how and thought provoking speeches. Other speakers, hailing from Asia Pacific CanChams, academic and research institutions will help the participants understand global trends and their impact on them. Some speakers will represent regional organizations in Asia and Canada or their host country governments.

Target Audience

The target audience for the summit can be categorized as follows:

- Canada-related businesses in Asia and their leaders
- Canadian industry players with a desire to enter Asia
- Leaders of Canadian business support organizations
- Canadian academic and research institutions with a keen interest in Asia and who can deliver future business leaders to Canadian industries
- Canadian and Asia Pacific business related media
- Canadian provincial offices working towards Trade Promotion.

Programme Content Registration Form

The summit shall showcase how Canadian companies can contribute to innovation, capacity building and sustainability. The summit programme is a mix between business presentations and interactive seminars for the participants. All interactions will reflect on pertinent issues with regard to trade and investment promotion between Canada and Asia.

Desired Outcome of the Summit

It is envisioned that the Summit shall inspire and strengthen Canadian industries through sharing ideas and experiences. In addition, the summit shall help build networks both in the Asia Pacific Region and Canada. Finally, it is desirable that the summit shall deliver key recommendations on development and actions needed to make Canadian industries more competitive in Asia.
